

A Guide on Hemorrhoids and Homeopathy

Hemorrhoids or sometimes called piles refer to a condition where the particular veins around the lower rectum and anus tend to be swollen and swollen. It can happen to anyone - men or women and old or young. Hemorrhoids take place because there is a strain in the bowel movement. Others suffer from hemorrhoids because of aging, pregnancy, chronic diarrhea and also chronic constipation. It can be seen either internal (inside the anus) or external (below the skin around the anus). There are a few people who have hemorrhoids but they do not experience any symptoms. Vibrant red blood that covers the stool is one of the common internal signs of hemorrhoids. Take note, internal hemorrhoids might protrude with the anus which can be painful and irritating.
